ACT 1

Star portal opens in Batcave

(19) BM: Appreciate

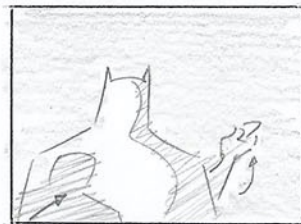

the assist, Booster.

The 31st century is now a little safer.

It's just a great feeling to know that when Batman needs help

Booster Gold's at the top of his speed-dial!

(20) BG: No thanks necessary.

First one I called.

(22) BG: Number 2's not bad.

(23) You weren't the second, either.

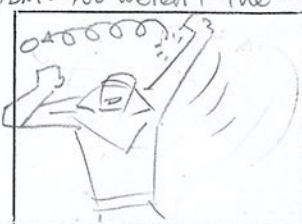

(24) BG: As long as you called.

(25) S: You called him, sir.

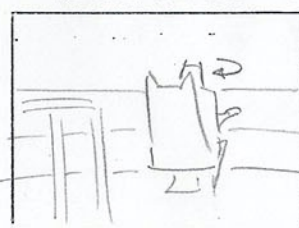

(fake stretching)

Bonk!

(26) BM: I think you know

the way out.

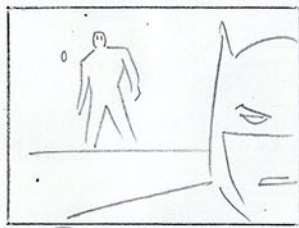

(27) S: We should go before he sics the dog on us again, sir.

(Theramin sound)

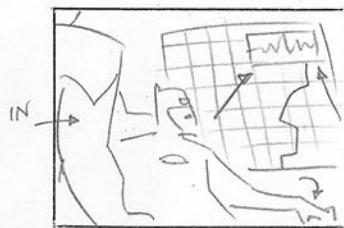

(28) BG: Hey, what's that?

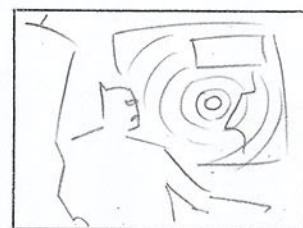

29 BM: Sigh...

29 BM: An unidentified signal was first detected—

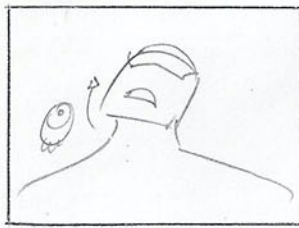

—weeks ago. Based on this triangulation—

—it's coming from Star City.

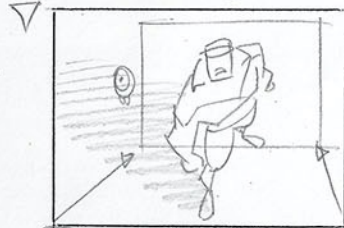

30 BM/VO: The timing corresponds—

—with an increase in—

—small meteor strikes around the globe.

31 BG: Global meteor strikes? A strange signal from Star City?

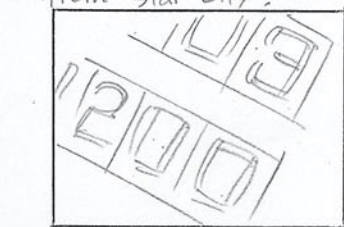

This is all sounds really familiar.

Today's not...

(36) BM: Ace?

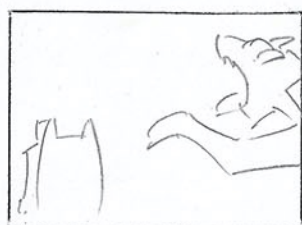

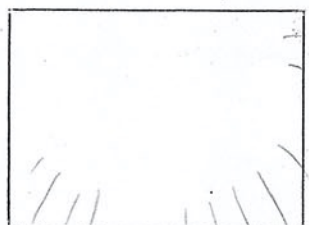

<BARKING>

(Ace bursts out of shadow)

(37) S: Well done, sir.

(38) BM: Good boy.

Now maybe we can

- find out what this all means.

(39) BM/VO: No match in the database.

(62) BM: This is like no threat
I've ever faced.

We're going to need an army of heroes. The best of the best.

(63) BG: Yeah, but—

doesn't have a—

—face full of Starfish?

(64) BM: Only one way
to find out.

I modified my communicator so only those

with uncompromised
synaptic responders—

signal.

(65) BG: What,
like a dog whistle?
